PRESIDENT WITHDRAWS NOMINATION OF JONES

Does So at the Request of the Nominee for Federal Reserve Board

AND GIVES HIS REASONS

Severe Fight Was Detrimental to Administration

ALSO TO THE NOMINEE

Wilson by His Action Terminates Bitterest Fight of His Administration—Correspondence Accompanies Message

THOMAS D. JONES

Washington, July 23.—President Wilson late today ended the bitterest fight of his administration by withdrawing the nomination of Thos. D. Jones, of Chicago, to be memeber of the Federal Reserve Board. Mr. Jones had written urging this action.

The message of withdrawal reached the Senate just as Senator Reed, of Missouri, one of the Democrats opposing confirmation of the appointment, was concluding a vigorous denunciation of the International Harvester Co., of which Mr. Jones is director, and those responsible for its existence and operations. It created a mild sensation and cut short a debate that promised to run indefinitely.

With the brief message, the President sent copies of Mr. Jones' letter and his reply. Opposition to the nominee had been based on his connection with the Harvester Company, which is under indictment as a trust. The Senate banking committee had submitted a majority report adverse to confirmation, signed by all the Republican and two Democratic members. Mr. Jones wrote that this report was "based on a distortion of facts and perversion of the truth".

Wilson's Reply

In his reply President Wilson accepted Mr. Jones' suggestion with reluctnance and scored those who, he said, had treated his nomination with "gross and manifest injustice". He disclaimed any embarrassment in standing by a man he believed in, but declared he was unwilling to allow Mr. Jones to be a "football" in the contest that had sprung up.

Conference With Senators.

While Senator Reed was speaking, Secretary Tumulty held a conference with Senators Hollis and Pomerene, who with Senators Lee, of Maryland, and Shafroth have been most active in urging the confirmation of Mr. Jones.

The President's secretary had not long been in conference with the Senators from Ohio and New Hampshire before the purpose of his mission was whispered about the Senate lobby.

In executive session a few minutes later the formal announcement of the withdrawal was received without comment. When the Senate adjourned, however, there was a Democratic love feast in the cloak room. Senator Hitchcock, in speaking of the effect of the message said:

"The message certainly lifted a load from a great many Democrats. I am sure it is a good thing for Democracy."

Senator Reed also expressed his delight over the outcome.

Senator Lewis, of Illinois, declared that had the President kept his name before the Senate Mr. Jones would have been confirmed.

President Wilson is said to have been determined on Mr. Jones until noon today, when he concluded that the anti-trust programme might be endangered if the fight in the Senate was continued.

Speculation over whom Mr. Wilson will choose as Mr. Jones' successor began immediately after the nomination was withdrawn. The names of O. M. Hershey, of Baltimore, and I. M. Felton, the choice of Senator Lewis, of Chicago, were understood to be under consideration.

It was thought that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin would now be made Governor of the board. The President has been assured that the nomination of Paul M. Warburg can be confirmed.

Senator Reed today took the floor and for several hours he held the Senate with an attack on the Harvester Company. Mr. Jones' connection with that concern was the principal basis for the opposition to his confirmation.

"This pirate ship whose kiel which was laid by Morgan and Perkins," said Senator Reed, "is sailing the same sea today, manned by the same crew and those who tread her decks today are just as deserving of punishment as those who launched her on her buccaneering cruise."

"The man who conducts the Harvester trust," the Senator said, "cannot escape responsibility by alleging that his sponsor and friend created it before he took service.

"The Harvester company has many arms. It is only one of that pestiferous litter whelped in the Morgan offices. These all are united by the tripleties of consanguinity, affinity and interest. The monopoly quagmire has a common origin and a common bed. Touched at its circumference, it quivers throughout its entire body. Shake it and there will come crawling to the surface the foul beasts that inhabit slime. Their heads will appear in concert, and their angry cries unite in an unharmonious chorus of malediction.

Cause In Common

"Their cause is as much in common as was that of Ali Babi and his forty thieves. Touch the international and you arouse the steel trust. Awaken it and you disturb a chain of subsidiary companies."

Correspondence between the President and Mr. Jones made public at the White House today follows in part:

To His Excellency, the President:

"I feel that it is my duty to ask you to withdraw my nomination as a member of the Federal Reserve Board You are aware that I was in no sense whatever an applicant for the office. It was with the gravest reluctuance that I agreed to accept the honorable but heavy burdens of that office in case my nomination were sent to the Senate and confirmed by it. I did not then anticipate a protracted an bitter contest. At the invitation of the committee on banking and currency, I willingly appeared before it and I endeavored to answer with entire frankness all the questions that were asked and my testimony was made public at my request.

"It is not for me to surmise motives or to complain of results. That my nomination and the controversy that has arisen over it in the committee of banking and currency is serious and ambarassing your administration and is causing injury to the party of which you are the leader is too clear to admit of any doubt. And in view of the character of the report made by the majority of the committee on banking and currency, much of it based on distortion of facts and perversion of facts, I feel convinced even if the nomination were confirmed by the Senate my usefulness as a member of the Federal Reserve Board would be seriously impaired.

"I am not willing longer to remain the cause of embarrassment to you and to your administration, and in view of the considerations above stated, I now ask that you withdraw my name from consideration.

"Faithfully yours,
"THOMAS D. JONES."

Personal Letter to President.

In a letter to the President, accompanying the formal request, Mr. Jones said:

"I cannot let the matter go without a personal word, which I deemed inappropriate to be inserted in that letter. I confess that the opportunity to be associated with you, in the actual creative work of government, took strong hold upon my imagination. I doubt whether I could have stood the work long, but I was prepared to devote the last ounce of strength there was in me to the work which your proposal seemed to bring to me.

"Now that the vision is passed, my

CONGRESS IN EARNEST OVER TRUST MEASURES

Plans of Democratic Caucus Adopted by Senate.

Many Republicans Voted with the Democratic Members for Adoption of Plan—Rivers and Harbors Bill Next.

Washington, July 23.—Determination to expedite trust legislation and bring Congress to an adjournment as soon as possible was demonstrated today when the Senate adopted the plan of the Democratic caucus to hold daily sessions from 11 o'clock in the morning until 6 P. M., with recesses from day to day in order to dispense with what is known as the "morning hour" for miscellaneous business.

Many Republicans voted with the Democrats and it was agreed that trust legislation should be pressed until disposed of. The Inter-State Trade Commission bill, already discussed at intervals for more than a week now, will be pressed until a vote is reached. Then the Clayton bill to supplement the Sherman act will follow and last will come the railroad securities regulation bill, which was reported today by Senator Newlands, chairman of the Inter-State commerce committee.

Aftermath of the Democratic caucus, which relegated to fourth place on the legislative programme the river and harbor appropriation bill, brought many indications of an early adjournment than recently had been hoped for. Many Senators privately asserted they could see no chance for holding Congress after the trust legislation is passed.

Administration leaders have set their hopes for adjournment by September 15, with a possibility of concluding earlier.

PREPARE TO TURN OVER GOVERNMENT

Carbajal Sends Envoy to Meet General Carranza.

FEAR VILLA AND ZAPATA

Bandit Who Is Operating South of Mexico City May Attempt to Enter Capital—Villa Will Make Big Demands.

Washington, July 23.—Reginaldo Capeda, s[illegible]or from the State of Coahuila, intimate friend of General Carranza, has been selected by Provisional President Carbajal to negotiate the transfer of the government at Mexico City to the Constitutionalists.

Mr. Cepeda, who was in hiding in Mexico City during the Huerta dictatorship, left Vera Cruz today for Tampico to meet General Carranza. He has full instructions and authority to arrange for the transfer of government.

Jose Castellot, personal representative of Mr. Carbajal, today conveyed this information to Secretary Bryan. Messers Mangel, Novelo and Urueta, who, it had been supposed, would constitute the Carbajal commission, it was learned today merely volunteered their services and have no credentials or authority from Carbajal.

As soon as Dr. Cepeda is received by General Carranza, an armistice will be formally signed as the first step in the negotations. General Carranza has indicated his willingness to declare a truce during the negotiations, and the Carbajal government is anxious to do likewise. The Carbajal envoy has been instructed to ask for only two things—a complete amesty for political offenders and guarantees of protection of lives and property of the Mexican people.

Wants the Murderers.

While local agents of Carranza have said he was disinclined to grant an amnesty, his speech today at Victoria Mexico, and other reliable advices show he will declare an amnesty though reserving the right to punsh those directly responsible for the assassination of Madero and Suarez. Most of those implicated, however, have left Mexico City.

Secretary Bryan expressed confidence there would be no difficulty in the way of a Carranza-Carbajal agreement.

Villa and Zapata, however, are causing uneasiness, but President Wilson today said he was sure Villa would cause no trouble. Secretary Bryan made public dispatches from Geo. C Caruthers, special representative of the State Department with Villa, saying the fighting general would not break with Carranza.

Mexicans here who have been kept advised of Villa's antipathy toward Carranza say the breach has been healed out temporarily. They say Villa will remain quietly in northern Mexico and when Carranza reaches Mexico City and a conference of generals is called, Villa will make vigorous demands for a share in the government or in the promotion of his friends.

As to Zapata, many disquieting rumore are reaching Washington diplomats. One South America minister had a telegram from his consul general at Mexico City saying merely: "The situation here looks very dark." It was presumed this referred to uneasiness as to whether the Constitutionalists would enter Mexico peacefully, or take it arbitrarily without previous agreement. The Zapatatistas are reported active and liable to take advantage of the unsettled situation to force an entry into Mexico City.

The attitude of the future government in Mexico toward Federal court decisions under Huerta was the subject of a conference today between solicitors of the State Department and representatives of oil companies in Mexico.

COMMITTEE DOES NOT WANT TO HEAR COLONEL

Already Know What He Did in Colombia Matter.

Decision of Committee Will Not Be Announced Until Last Part of Next Week It Is Said

Washington, July 23—Theodore Roosevelt's request to be heard by the Senate foreign relations committee in opposition to the Colombian treaty, by which the United States would pay $25,000,000 for the Panama Canal strip and express regret that anything should have occured to "mar the friendly relations between the two countries" remained unanswered by the committee today No decision will be reached for another week.

Democratic members of the committee and administration leaders generally are said to be opposed to holdings with regard to the treaty and particularly to the appearance of Colonel Roosevelt. In this they follow the sentiments of Senator Stone, chairman of the foreign relations committee, wh today reiterated his declaration that the ex-President had said all he could say about the Colombian matter and if he had anything further to say "let him write it."

NEW HAVEN SUIT IS FILED IN NEW YORK

Government Asks the Dissolution of System.

WANT INDICTMENTS TOO

Department of Justice Cleared the Way to Press Action Against Former Directors Under Criminal Laws.

New York, July 23.—With the filing of its civil suit to dissolve the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad system here today, the Department of Justice cleared the way to press its request for indictments of New Haven officials and directors for alleged criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. Attorney General McReynolds is expected to confer tomorrow with T. W. Gregory, his special assistant in the New Haven case, about the proposed grand jury proceedings. Mr. Gregory, after filing the brief in the civil suit in the United States district court, conferred with United States District Attorney Marshall about the criminal phase of the case.

Mr. Gregory and F. M. Swacker, former expert of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, who helped investigate the New Haven for the Department of Justice, are expected to appear before the grand jury and present the evidence on which indictments will be asked.

The civil suit begun today against the New Haven charges that it is an unlawful monopoly in restrain of trade and asks the court to divest the New Haven of its holdings in the Boston & Maine Railroad, the old New England Railroad, its various steamship lines and other properties which the brief says were acquired to make paramount its grasp of New England's transportation. The bill is sweeping in character.

The New Haven directors refused today to discuss the suit. They have 20 days in which to file an answer. Officials have been of the opinion that the road may not attempt to make a prolonged fight. They may decide to admit the truth of the allegations set forth in the government's bill and merely try to test the legal points involved. Such a decision probably would expedite the case and bring it before the Supreme Court within a comparatively short time.

LARGE REWARD OFFERED FOR WOULD-BE ASSASSIN

Columbia, S. C., Physician Has a Chance to Recover

J. W. Norwood, Banker of Greenville Offered Five Thousand Dollars for Arrest and Conviction of Assailant

Columbia, S. C., July. 23.—A reward of $5,000 for the arrest and conviction of the man who early today shot Dr. James H. McIntosh, well known physician of Columbia, was offered late today by J. W. Norwood, a Greenville banker. Citizens of Columbia launched a campaign to raise $1,000 for the arrest of the assailant, who is supposed to have escaped in an automobile.

The shooting of Dr. McIntosh was the immediate subject for attacks on lawlessness in South Carolina by candidates for the United States Senate speaking here. Governor Blease in his speech today expressed regret that Dr. McIntosh had been the victim of such an attack. Dr. McIntosh was recently drawn into the senatorial situation because of his opinion in a well known parole case. It was said tonight that probably he would recover.

Dr. McIntosh, was shot and seriously injured early today by a man who met him on the street and fired, it is said, without warning. The bullet struck him in the abdomen. Dr. McIntosh was on his way to answer a call at a hospital near his home. After being shot he was carried to the hospital where he said he would be unable to recognize his assailant.

Mr. J. W. Norwood, of Greenville, S. C., who has offered $5,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the person who shot Dr. McIntosh, will be remembered by many readers of The Star as a former prominent citizen and banker of Wilmington.

BEER BILL UNFAVORABLY REPORTED TO SENATE.

Committee Votes Against Allowing Beer Manufactured in State.

Atlanta, Ga., July 23.—The temperance committee of the Georgia State Senate today voted to report adversely the McNeill bill to legalize the manufacture and sale within the State of beer containing not more than 4 per cent alcohol. The measure was opposed by State temperance organizations. The sale of near-beer now is legal in Georgia.

Rochester, N. Y., July 23.—Driven desperate by inability to purchase habit-forming drugs under the new prohibitory lay, eight victims of drugs, all young men, today applied to the police and were locked up. They declared if they were not placed in confinment they feared they would either commit murder or self destruction.

CHAIRMAN BARNES BRINGS LIBEL SUIT

Colonel Roosevelt to be Named as Defendant.

WANTS FIFTY THOUSAND

Chairman of New York State Republican Committee Gets "Riled" at Statements of Former President.

New York, July 23.—Chairman William F. Barnes, of the Republican States committee, announced today that he had informed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt, based upon Col. Roosevelt's statement of last night attacking Mr. Barnes and endorsing the candidacy of Harvey D. Hinman for the nomination for Governor at the Republican primaries.

The amount of damages for which Mr. Barnes would sue apparently had not been determined at the time he issued his statement. It was said, however, that it would be for a substantial sum.

The suit will be brought in the Supreme Court, Mr. Barnes announced, within a few days.

"I have nothing whatever to say in reply to Mr. Roosevelt's diatribe except that it lacks dignity, self-restraint and is without foundation," said Mr. Barnes. "When an issue of this kind is raised by a person of such prominence, there is but one of three courses: To submit to the aspersion; to enter into an unseemly personal controversy, or appeal to the courts in order that the person who uttered a libel be made to produce legal evidence."

It was reported Mr. Barnes' statement was issued after a conference with other Republican leaders.

Mr. Barnes refused to specify what portions of Col Roosevelt's statements were distasteful, but said:

"The statement in its entirety, is untrue."

Figures Are $50,000.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 23.—Papers in a $50,000 libel suit begun by William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican State committee, were served on ex-President Roosevelt today. A copy of the complaint was handed to him by James S. Ivins, of the law firm employed by Mr. Barnes. According to Mr. Ivins, it rests with Col. Roosevelt whether the suit shall be tried before election, or delayed, perhaps, two years. Col. Roosevelt had learned that the lawyer was on the way. Without waiting for Mr. Ivins to explain his visit, he held out his hand and greeted him cordially.

Col. Roosevelt invited Mr. Ivins into his library and gave him a seat. Mr. Ivins then handed Col. Roosevelt the papers. The men talked for a few minutes, but did not mention Mr. Barnes' name. Col. Roosevelt showed his visitor to the door and shook hands with him again as he left.

Mr. Ivins said that Mr. Barnes, when looking over the papers in New York remarked: "Mr. Roosevelt last year did the very unusual thing of suing for libel a Michigan editor who called him a drunkard. I am simply following the precedent he set."

Col. Roosevelt declined to say what course he would pursue in the case until he had consulted his lawyer. Earlier tonight when the proposed suit was mentioned the Colonel laughed: "Let Mr. Barnes go on. I have never said anything that I could not prove."

GAVE 10-CENT TIP; FINED $6.

Salesman First to be Punished Under Mississippi Law.

Jackson, Miss., July 22.—A. W. Sinclair, a traveling salesman, yesterday was fined $6 for tipping a negro hotel porter 10 cents. He is said to be the first person to be arrested under the State Anti-Tipping statute, now two years old.

The negro was also fined a similar amount for accepting the tip. Sinclair's fine later was remitted.

FOURTH DEATH RESULTS FROM BUBONIC PLAGUE

Woman Suffered from Septioaemic Type of Disease

This is Considered More Dangerous Than Bubonic Type With Which Other Eight Victims Are Afflicted—Ninth Case.

New Orleans, July 23.—Bubonic plague claimed its fourth death here today. The death occurred at the same address from which Helen Scell, aged 10, developed the disease last Saturday and the victim was the child's grandmother, Regina Schmidt, aged 73.

The woman became ill July 20, and she was listed as a plague suspect. She suffered from the septioaemic type. This is considered more dangerous than the bubonic type, which has affected each of the other eight cases.

Four snakes, 70 rats, enough roaches to almost fill a barrel, and millions of bedbugs formed part of the cargo of a freight vessel sailing tropical seas and which was fumigated here yesterday in connection with the fight against bubonic plague. Two of the snakes were boa constructors more than five feet long. Two others were of a harmless Central American variety.

SCENES OF A DRAMATIC NATURE FEATURE TRIAL

CHARGES SOUTHERN ENTERED FRAME-UP

To Block the Inter-State Commerce Commission

DULANEY IS WITNESS

Tennessee Man Declares That Operators and Railroads Entered a Frame-up Against Southern Tidewater Cities.

Washington, July 23.—Charges that the Southern Railway had entered into a "frame-up with coal trust operators" to keep the Inter-State Commerce Commission from granting to Virginia mines through and joint rates to tidewater by way of Knoxville were made today by B. L. Dulaney, of Bristol, Tenn. He was testifying on cross examination before the Senate committee investigating allegations that the Southern and other lines at the behest of the "coal combine" divert to middle Atlantic points coal shipments that should go to Charleston and other Southern ports.

Mr. Dulaney declared the "frame-up" occurred in the "Andy's Ridge case." He testified that the Virginia coal operators agreed to make a joint fight to protect their rights, but that the "trust" operators after telephone conversations with Southern Railway officials, changed their course and committed a fraud on the Inter-State Commerce Commission by not making certain arguments.

Attorney Thom, representing the Southern Railway, produced a letter in which Dulaney's counsel first suggested the operators make a common fight. Mr. Dulaney said it was later that it was discovered the "trust" operators had changed their course at the instigation of the Southern.

No Charges Against Commission.

"Do you mean to say that the Commission did not give you a square deal?" asked Mr. Thom.

"I am making no charges against the commission."

"Didn't Commissioner Prouty write you that the question of through rates could not well come up in the case, but that he was willing to hear you?" asked the attorney.

"That is not the way I interpreted his letter."

"Now isn't it true that the rates now in existence allow you to get to market on the same terms as your competitors?" asked Mr. Thom.

"Yes, but the Southern, immediately after the Andy's Ridge case, began to give their patronage of fuel coal to the trust operators and that enables them to run their mines continuously while we cannot do so."

"Does the Southern pay an exorbitant price for its coal?"

"I am not able to testify on that point."

"Were not operators in your district given an opportunity to bid on the Southern's field coal?"

"Not that I am aware of."

DOES WILSON CONSIDER JUDGE CLARK TOO OLD?

Petitions Presented by Messrs. Simmons and Overman

A. W. McLean and J. W. Bailey Vigorously Press Claims of the North Carolina Jurist—Laurinburg May Get Federal Court.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 23.—President Wilson told Senators Simmons and Overman today that he would not consider a man for the Federal Supreme bench who was over 65 years of age. He preferred, he said, to have a man under 60, but he must be under 65. The two Senators called to learn the President's attitude as to the age limit. They did not indorse Judge Clark, but presented the many petitions which have been sent here by North Carolina lawyers.

The two Senators were accompanied to the White House by J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, and A. W. McLean, of Lumberton. After Senators Simmons and Overman had talked for a few minutes with the Chief Executive they withdrew and left Messrs. McLean and Bailey with Mr. Wilson. These gentlemen told the President of the high character and great ability of the North Carolina judge and indorsed him in no uncertain terms. It is not believed, however, that they were given any more encouragement than was given the two Senators when the petitions were presented. As stated before in this correspondence, the President has never figured Judge Clark in the running.

The names of Judges W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, and B. F. Long, of Statesville, as probable successor to Judge Lurton were discussed by the President and Senators Simmons and Overman.

J. Redmond Collie has returned to Louisburg after a short visit to Washington.

W. H. McGlamery, of Greensboro, left here today for Norfolk by boat.

Divorced Wife of M. Caillaux Is Sensational Witness for Three Hours

FACES FORMER HUSBAND

Places Mme. Henriette Caillaux on Rack

BRINGS OTHER LETTERS

First Wife of Former Premier of France Gains the Sympathy of the Court Room by the Story of Her Life.

Paris, July 23.—Mme. Berthe Gueydan, Joseph Caillaux's first wife, a slender woman with black eyes and wasted cheeks, today faced her former husband, the ex-premier of France and put upon the rack the woman who had won him from her—Mme. Henriette Caillaux, now on trial charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette.

Mme. Gueydan was expected to tell of her part of the publication in the Figaro of the now celebrated "Thy Joe" letter, but she declared she knew nothing about it and affirmed that she had told Calmette nothing.

The emotional climax of the trial was reached when other private letters were handed over by Mm. Gueydan to Fernand Labori, counsel for Mme. Caillaux.

"Here is the packet of letters I took at Mamers," said Mme. Gueydan, giving them to an attendant who passed them to M. Labori. "I will consider with Maitre Chenu what shall be done," said M. Labori, "but whatever we decide, the jury may rest assured that they will be apprised of their contented as is their right and duty to expect."

Other Private Letters.

"Among them," added Mme. Gueydan, "are the two letters referred to as the private letters."

Mme. Gueydan left the box. Her personality had dominated the proceedings. For three hours she spoke. In that time she laid bare many of the secrets of her life with M. Caillaux. She told of his liason and of his throwing himself at her knees to ask her pardon. She described her methods of defense against what she termed the machiavellian maneuvers of an unfaithful husband. She testified that he even threatened her life.

Then she left him, hoping he would follow her, but he did not, and she added, with a flash of her eyes and a tightening of her lips:

"You know why."

She gained the sympathy of those in the court room with telling phrases. There were murmurs of applause despite the admonitory rappings of the judge and threats to clear the court. M. Caillaux returning to the bar said:

"M. Labori was right in thanking Mme. Gueydan for the letters. The calumny does not come from us, but persons who used methods against us never used against others. But that is a diversion. I return to that poor woman there," pointing with dramatic gesture to the dock where Mme. Caillaux sat shaking with emotion. "With all my strength I will defend her. I ought to be beside her; nothing shall seprate us."

Mme. Caillaux Breaks Down.

As her husband was speaking the prisoner's convulcive sobbing could be heard. M. Caillaux went on with wild gestures to depict the years which had preceded his marriage to her.

"I made but one mistake," he said turning to Mme. Gueydan: "That was in marrying you."

"Monsier Caillaux, you are disgracing yourself," responded Mme. Gueydan calmly.

"No, I am not disgracing myself. A common life was impossible. My dignity forbade me live any longer with you."

This sharp passage provoked an uproar.

"Let me finish," shouted M. Caillaux. "You did not want a divorce. Nevertheless, whatever wrongs were on my side were handsomly compensated for. I gave you 18,000 francs alimony. You had not a centime when I married you; I gave you 200,000 francs."

A chorus of groans greeted these remarks. Caillaux whirled around and began to address the court room. He was called to order by the judge but continued to recite the circumstances of his divorce.

Both he and Mme. Caillaux believed, he said, that the "Thy Joe" letter formed one of a trilogy and that its publication would be followed by the publication of the other two.

"Gentlemen," he said, turning to the jury, "I am a profoundly unhappy man. I had been a profoundly happy man since my second marriage." Mme. Caillaux's sobs at this stage redoubled and became painful to hear.

"Are you going?" asked M. Caillaux of Mme. Gueydan, "to force us to trumpet forth in this place all those things we avoided at the time of the divorce?"

Mme. Gueydan did not reply.

Caillaux Forgives Former Wife

"Whatever you may have done I forgive you, and salute you," said he, bowing low as he passed her.

The court hummed with expectation when the ex-premier, Jean Louis Barthou, took the stand. After he had recorded his high opinion of the integrity of Gaston Calmette he denied ever having told M. Caillaux that Mme. Gueydan had showed him two letters. He told of steps taken at the request of the premier, Doumergue to stop M. Calmette from publishing a number of documents, notably the Chicago, July 23.—Australians today scored a one-sided victory over Canada in the first of the Davis cup elimination matches at the Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest. In straight sets, Anthony F. Wilding defeated R. F. Powell, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2, and in the same manner Norman Brookes won from B. P. Schwengers, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2. The Canadians made a game fight for every point, but were outclassed.

The result gives the Australians a big advantage, since, to win the series, the Canadians now must take the doubles tomorrow and both the single matches on Saturday. The first match, that of Brookes and Schwengers, was hardly completed before a terrific storm began. The showers threatened to cause a postponement of the second match, but canvas covers kept the courts nearly dry and Wilding refused to consent to having the match set back.

In the doubles tomorrow Powell and Schwengers meet Brookes and Wilding. Cooler weather is predicted.

TOWNS SHARPLY COMPETING

For Tobacco and Other Business of Duplin and Wayne Counties.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., July 23—The farmers in this and adjoining counties are making preparations for curing the tobacco crop, and one of the biggest business struggles that this section has ever experienced is beginning to take form. The towns are so situated that two or three of them have a chance to secure parts of the crop from the same country and it is between these that the fight is beginning to be waged. The warehouse men in the different towns have offered prizes of various kinds, sending delegates to visit the farmers, and fixing the roads that lead into their towns in the best of condition, and trying in every way to bring the crops into their various houses. The towns are also taking a part in the scrap and it will be interesting from now until the time the crop is marketed to watch the fight that will be waged.

The Board of Trade at its regular meeting held last night appointed a committee of three to solicit among the business men of the town, and secure, if possible, a fund of $100 to be used in advertising the town throughout the county, with a view to bringing trade here. Automobiles will travel over the county on each Saturday of next month distributing circulars, and employing various means of advertising. This committee was also instructed to try and raise $100 with which to repair the road from here to Sarecta, a distance of a few miles. The indications are that the amounts will be raised without any trouble.

CAPT. NEWELL ARRESTS NEGRO.

Charged With Assault With Deadly Weapon in Onslow.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Newbern, N. C., July 23.—Early yesterday morning Edward Spicer, colored, of Onslow county, shot and seriously wounded another negro near Jacksonville. Immediately after the shooting Spicer escaped and during the day the Onslow officers failed to locate him. Yesterday afternoon one of the officers boarded the train enroute from Wilmington to this city and rode for a considerable distance in the hope that the fugitive would come aboard. Finally he alighted and returned home. At the next station Spicer boarded the train and took a seat in one of the cars.

Capt. W. H. Newell was in charge of the train and at once "spotted" the negro. Arriving on the outskirts of this city, Spicer attempted to alight from the car but Captain Newell placed him under arrest and turned him over to the local police and he is now in jail awaiting the arrival of an officer from Onslow county who will take him back to answer to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

LEON AMES

Red McGhee says:

Now who'd a thought that this guy Ames could pitch his way through seven games an' never once be yanked? If you'd told any Giant fan that tale last year he'd say: "Good man, be still. They'll think you're tanked." Ames did it, though, a few weeks back. He dodged the derrick an' the jack all through the nine full frames. But that ain't all—here's what'd make that Giant fan jump in the lake. AMES WON THOSE SEVEN GAMES.

That's right. With Cincy's Reds this year the castoff hasn't got a peer at turnin' in the wins. "Five Inning Ames" it used to be, but since he's on this comeback spree he's made up for his sins. Buck Herzog made him understand it wasn't time yet to be canned, so Leon took a brace. Buck spilled a lot o' common sense an' Ames got back his confidence an' hit his winnin' pace.

This winnin' streak I told about had one game in it that stood out an' tickled Ames to death. He went against his ol' team mates an' made 'em swing like rusty gates—he fanned 'em out o' breath. His switch in form you can't explain no more than you can stop the rain.—There ain't no answer 'tall. The unexpected, unforeseen, is just what keeps the diamond green—what really makes baseball.

ORDER CONVICT RELEASED

Negro Who Escaped from Roads Given Freedom in Norfolk, Va.,

Because he had only three more months on the roads to serve, Bob Pearsall, alias Big Boy, alias Marcus Pierson, colored, who escaped some time ago and was recently arrested in Norfolk, Va., was ordered released yesterday by Sheriff S. P. Cowan after conferring with Mr. W. A. McGirt, acting chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and Mr. W. A. Williams, clerk to the board. He was informed that it was not considered that three months that the negro had to serve would justify the expense of sending to Norfolk for him.

Chief of Police C. C. Kizer, of Norfolk, wrote Sheriff Cowan last week that Marcus Pierson, colored, who escaped from the roads in this county 18 months ago, had been located. Sheriff Cowan informed him that he did not know of a negro of that name and asked the Norfolk officer to find out if he had an alias. Yesterday morning he received a telegram stating that the negro's name was Bob Pearsall, alias Big Boy, alias Marcus Pierson and that he had been arrested and was being held pending the arrival of an officer from Wilmington.

CLAIMS SUPERNATURAL POWER

Insane Negress Placed in Custody by Police Yesterday—In Jail

When Sergeant G. W. Smith, who is spending a few days at his home on his annual vacation, attempted to take an insane negro woman in charge yesterday morning because of a great disturbance she was making at Second nad Castle streets he found that he had quite a proposition on his hands. By calling in outside help he was able to keep her from running away until the patrol wagon could come for her, but it was no easy job.

She was adjudged insane by Clerk of Superior Court W. N. Harriss yesterday afternoon and lodged in the county jail. She would not tell her name further than to say that it was Margaret. She claimed to have supernatural power saying that she controlled the sun, moon and stars. She declared that they obeyed her every beck and call and seemed to think that she was present when they were created. For some time her mind has been deranged, it is stated, but it was only until recently that her condition became such that she disturbed those around her.

MEETING OF SHIPPERS.

Will Consider Proposition for Having Public Terminals for Port.

A meeting of the shippers of Wilmington has been called for today at noon at the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of considering the report of the committee recently appointed to investigate a proposition for having public terminals at this port. A full attendance is desired in order that the matter may be given thorough consideration.

The matter was first brought before the shippers several weeks ago through the Public Terminals and Harbor Improvement Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. J. Allan Taylor is chairman. After holding a meeting at which the proposition was discussed to some extent a special committee was appointed to look into the matter and report later.

This is a matter that is of vital importance to the future growth and development of the port and it is hoped at an early date to arrive at some satisfactory solution.

TOBACCO AT FAIRMONT.

Prices Are Ranging High—Opening Sales in Progress.

Fairmont, N. C., July 23.—Although small in comparison with other years, the opening sale of tobacco here certainly ranked high as to prices. All the warehouses in town sold a total of 36,968 pounds; the competition was strong and the buyers were active. Fairmont was ready for the farmers, stores were decorated and goods attractively displayed. People from several counties were here for the first "break."

The growers are much elated over the prices. The buyer for T. F. Reeves & Co., says he has been in the warehouse business for 26 years and tobacco opened the highest this week he has ever seen it. He advises the farmers to be careful in cropping their tobacco and to avoid green leaves as much as possible and by all means to let it get ripe. Speculators and pinhookers are advised against.

Mr. John J. Blair, the popular superintendent of the Wilmington graded schools, returned to the city Wednesday after spending some time at his old home at High Point. In company with Mr. J. G. L. Gleschen, a member of the County Board of Education, he spent the greater part of yesterday in inspecting the new school buildings now going up in Wilmington. Mr. Polvogt states that he got the idea in Washington, D. C., Ample room will be provided in the front and rear of the building for the convenience of those occupying the residences.

BLEASE DEFIES ASSASSINS.

Manner of His Death Predestined, Governor Declares.

Laurens, S. C., July 23.—Addressing a wildly enthusiastic audience here yesterday in his campaign for the United States Senate, Governor Cole L. Blease told of recent attacks which had been made upon him. He said a cotton manufacturer at Whitmer told him to "Go to h—". A capitalist at Anderson approached him with pistol in hand and a bank president at Greenville cursed him and tried to assault him Saturday.

"It is reported that I will be assassinated here today," said Governor Blease. "If the assassin is here, there is nothing between me and the dirty coward. Let him shoot."

Governor Blease added that he believed in fatalism. The manner of his death had been predestined, he said, and nothing could change it. He defied assassins.

SUICIDE ATTEMPTED

Newbern Man Dives into Neuse River Bpt is Rescued.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Newbern, N. C., July 23.—Believed to have become despondent over domestic troubles and probably momentarily mentally deranged by the affects of an alcoholic solution which he is believed to have drunk earlier in the day, A. D. Tyler, attempted to end his existence yesterday morning by diving into Neuse river. Fortunately for the would-be suicide, his act was witnessed by several spectators and he was rescued from a watery grave after he had gone down for the second time and is said to be recovering from the effects of his escapade. Several weeks ago Tyler's wife is alleged to have left him and gone to Norfolk where she is operating a boarding house on Banks street. This fact preyed ehavily on his mind and matters were made worst when she wrote and asked him to send their children to her.

Be One of the Crowd

"Charlotte" Night at Lumina this evening. (advertisement.)

THEATRICAL

Sure, the Grand Theatre was crowded yesterday. Wilmington folks always know a good thing when they see it. So yesterday to witness the special feature, presented by Charles Frohman, the theatre was crowded, and besides seeing a superb show theatre-goers had a chance to revel in solid comfort, because the Grand is the cool spot of Wilmington. Today is going to be a repeater for a big show and for big crowds, and the price of admission will be back to 5 cents, afternoon and night. Today's great film collection is a wonder. Heading the list comes a special two-part Indian tale, Kalem's "The Call of the Tribe," It is something spectacularly and thrillingly different from anything heretofore flashed on the screen. Swell and favorite Thespians appear in the story, including Princess Mona Darkfeather, who is an idol of devotees of the movies, Art Ortega, Rex, Downs and Big Moon.

"Wanted, a House," is a side-splitter on today, with such fine comedy people as Josie Sadler, William Shea and Charles Brown in the cast. Mr. and Mrs. Citiman long for the country, and they intend to go there, until they have some big surprises and exciting experiences. Then the city flat for theirs.

Did you ever attend a rummage sale? Of course. Well, in Selig's "The Rummage Sale," on at the Grand today, there is a story built around it. The story is a tender one and a great novelty.

Another Big Friday.

Another big Friday bill is on tap at the popular photoplay house for its many patrons, who have learned that there are no "off days" with this popular Wilmington amusement center. A total of five reels will be presented today, one of them the biggest of the year.

"When Fate Disposes" is the topliner on the bill, and is a thrilling two-reel Rex drama, that is entirely out of the ordinary run of light dramatic stories. It solves a unique problem in a unique way that is entirely new, and it is full of startling and thrilling situations and climaxes throughout. It features such stars as Robert Leonard, Ella Hall and Edna Maison, and will be one of the best offerings of the week.

"Breed O' the North" is a full reel Broncho drama, a drama of the primitive life in French Canada by the Broncho Feature Players. It's a big story, and contains some of the most beautiful settings ever employed in a motion picture. Clara Williams and Herbert Standing play the leading roles, and are supported by an all-star cast.

"The Courting of Prudence," is another full reel drama, an affecting story of love and paternal forgiveness by the Beauty Players, and features pretty Miss Margarita Fischer and Harry Pollard. It's a typical story, and true to life in every respect.

A rousing Sterling comedy, Snookee's Flirtation," is last on the bill, and features that great screen favorite, Ford Sterling, in another of his big releases.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Yesterday's Southport News: "The Southport Club goes to Carolina Beach today to play a game of ball against a nine from the Boys' Brigade of Wilmington. The boys from here go to Harper's pier by motor boat."

—Lottie Sparks, colored, was arrested yesterday by Constable Davis on a charge of vagrancy. She was committed to the county jail to await a hearing before Justice Harriss today. The warrant was sworn out by Mr. H. Mack Godwin.

—Clyde Hawkins, white, was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Davis on a capias. He is charged with having attenmpted to intimidate a witness in Justice Harriss' court. He was recognized for his appearance before Justice Harriss today.

—James Thomas, colored, was arrested last night by Policeman J. O. Bullard on a warrant charging him with assaulting his wife. She was not seriously hurt. He was lodged in the city prison to await a hearing before the Recorder this morning.

—Harry Roderick, white, was arrested last night by Constable Davis on a charge of assaulting his wife. The warrant was sworn out by Roderick's brother. He gave bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before Justice Harriss this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Yesterday's Southport News: "The government dredge Atlantic, which has been working on the Cape Fear bar for several months, goes to Wilmington the last of this week to be overhauled, preparatory to leaving for New York, where the Atlantic will be stationed.

—City Engineer Pillet at the suggestion of Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, is making a map showing the streets which the three traction companies asking for franchises from the city desire to use. The map will be a great aid to Council when this body passes upon the applications.

—In attempting to dodge Thomas Albro, a colored boy, who was on a bicycle coming down Market towards street yesterday afternoon, Mr. J. L. Memory turned sharply to the right with his automobile and had a tire dragged from his machine. The negro ran into the machine. Neither was hurt seriously. The negro boy was arrested by the police on a charge of reckless riding.

—Yesterday's Southport News: "Messrs. Doane, of Beaufort; McIntyre, of Morehead City, and Dye, of Virginia, were in town last week to close up a deal for a tract of land from Mr. R. M. Wescott to build up a fish factory, near Frazier's Neck. An enterprise of this kind, as well as other factories is what we need to build up Southport, and we welcome all enterprising men in our section."

—Mr. H. C. Blake, the East Wilmington trucker, brought a load of new crop sweet potatoes to market yesterday and readily disposed of them at good prices. They were of the Providence yam variety and the two which he left at The Star office weighed three-quarters of a pound each. They were fine and Mr. Blake says the yield is splendid. He says that it is a pity to dig them now as they will grow to several times their present size. However, he expects to have plenty of them on the market in a week or ten days.

Messrs. Smith & Brisson have been sold the privileges of selling refreshments at the Moore's Creek celebration on August 6, but this does not include the sale of watermelons, cantaloupes and fruits which will be open to any farmer without charge. Nothing will be allowed for sale not permitted by the laws of the State.

Friday Morning, July 24 1914

The question of the day is who put the mud in all that muddle in the Third District?

Some writer insists that "all men have horse sense." We know it, but most of us say nay to it till it's too late.

If a man could furnish the initiative while his wife is busy furnishing the intuition he ought to wear diamonds.

General Carranza announces that unarmed rebels may enter the city of Mexico. They are liable to carry a concealed weapon on general principles.

When a lanky Texan begins to chew North Carolina sun-cured tobacco, everbody can observe that he is enjoying it on account of the way his adam's apple works up and down.

Among other things for calamity howlers to view with chagrin is the car shortage in the wheat country. In order to spite the calamity howlers the wheat growers put the grin in chagrin.

Among those who are liable to be sorry for having been born are those who have to answer to Carranza and Villa on a charge of having had a hand in Madero's assassination or had much to do with it in the way of furnishing approbation.

For months and months we have been feeding those 5,000 Mexican Federals who have been kept under guard at Fort Bliss. Meanwhile they were not put to work but were allowed to loaf around with their lunch hooks rammed down in their trouser pockets.

The Columbia State observes: "Kansas has put George Washington Glick into the capitol Hall of Fame. You remember this distinguished statesman, of course." Glick? Glick? We have no recollection of the Glick part, but recall only the George Washington for whom the gentleman was named.

The Sampson Democrat notes that the Clinton chamber of commerce has made an appropriation to advertise the advantages of Clinton and give publicity to the resources and adaptabilities of Sampson county. Only enterprising people take steps like that and their work is bound to be effective.

Probably one way to get plenty of factories in Wilmington is to start one and make it a go. Others will be sure to follow. According to the rule established in the cafe business, the success of one makes everybody start 'em a cafe. Get busy and start a money-making factory. Apply the cafe rule to factories.

The Charleston News and Courier says. "It is reported that Colonel Roosevelt will not accept the Presidential nomination in 1916. but the chances are that this report is a typographical error." When we hear from the Colonel, he will call it by its right name, with something like "deliberate and wilful" attached to it.

The way towns spring up these days, and old forks of the road is liable to be a city in a few years. We can remember when a North Carolina city of 12,000 people and several cotton mill was the original location of a lone blacksmith shop because two public roads crossed there. Later on two railroads crossed there, and you can imagine the rest.

When votes are cast they ought to be counted so the candidates and the people may know who is nominated or who is elected. Really that is what we vote for, but when a few men in different States manipulate the returns and decide themselves who is nominated, or elected, nobody ever knows whether they are lying or not. It spoils the whole idea as to rule by the people and they are beginning to think that some men ought to be in the penitentiary instead of in politics.

SENATOR SIMMONS DEFENDS WATERWAY IMPROVEMENTS.

Knowing Senator Burton a few years ago to be a friend of meritorious waterway improvements, we were surprised to note in the dispatches several days ago that the distinguished Ohio Senator had been selected by the Republican group to fight the Democratic bill embracing appropriations for the improvements of rivers and harbors. So far as opposing the expenditure of public money for any and all sorts of navigation schemes is concerned, we know that Senator Burton has stood pat on that, so he is now entirely consistent if his opposition means a fight against wasting money on schemes which do not promise good results for the money to be spent on them.

It is hardly believable that the able Ohio Senator is going to fight the whole rivers and harbors bill just because it is a Democratic measure. We rejoiced in the belief that this country, while Senator Burton's party was in power, had adopted a waterways policy, committing itself to necessary and meritorious improvement of the country's water highways of commerce, and it is a source of regret that a purely economic question is to be made one on which the parties will divide on purely partisan lines. It is a national matter, affecting economic transportation and distribution and aimed to increase the country's commerce, so that a question like that is in no wise a merely political one to be hawked around on that line by either Republicans or Democrats.

If this country really has not adopted an intelligent, safe and sane waterways policy, it is time we were doing it. We are not only behind European countries on that great question, but several of the South American countries have set us the pace. Congress ought to give a free trip to an equal number of Democrats and Republicans and send them to Hamburg and other points in Germany so they can study the waterways question and note what a real waterways policy is. They should also send another party to Rio Janeiro, Brazil, to Buenos Ayres, Argentina, to Montevideo, Uruquay, and to other South American ports which have been developed on modern lines. No doubt many of our congressmen know all about it, but they have not yet realized its importance and become convinced of its necessity.

There seems to be little or no justification for any partisan attack or party division on the rivers and harbors bill now pending in Congress. Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, is in charge of the bill, and a few days ago he answered the criticism of Senator Burton, who has been chosen by the opposition to lead the fight against it. The North Carolina statesman defended the bill against the usually irresponsible charges that it is a "pork barrel," "graft", etc. These are terms which have been engraved on American minds and they are used so indiscriminately that they have lost their meaning and effectiveness. It is only sufficient to say "pork barrel" in order to make the average man think some kind of steal is going on, without any regard whatever to the real facts of the case.

Some newspapers in North Carolina have contracted the habit of referring to the "pork barrel" and have alluded to North Carolina's part in it, whereas there is not a waterways project in North Carolina that is not highly meritorious and absolutely necessary and so recommended by the rivers and harbors engineers. Nothing that is not necessary gets by the army engineers down South, and we presume that the whole country gets the same conscientious, scrupulous, efficient and reliable service from all the army engineers throughout the country. Indeed, we have known North Carolina projects, both feasible and meritorius in a way, to be reported against altogether on the economical idea that the present commerce did not warrant the improvement at this time. In other words, there was no pressing necessity for it, no emergency calling for it and no present possibility to warrant the expenditure till some time in the future when conditions changed. North Carolina does not ask one dollar that is not needed to improve her waterways, and the truth is her projects exist on half rations largely for the reason that the press of the State has not conceived the importance of the State's waterways and commercial possibilities. On the contrary, many papers have hurt the State's cause by echoing the "pork barrel" cry against appropriations, whether they are needed or unnecessary. Discrimination should be exercised till the actual facts are known.

Senator Simmons and the North Carolina delegation in Congress are standing up for every needful dollar they can get for the State's waterways, and if they succeed in keeping North Carolina projects from getting their allowance pruned, they will then only get about one-tenth of the appropriation so necessary for the State's commerce. It should be borne in mind from the sea to the mountains, that commerce done on its ocean gateways and waterways is North Carolina's commerce just as all commerce done in all the States is known as American commerce. Commerce is reported by States and when the editors of the State see the amount of commerce accredited to North Carolina, they ought to become interested in securing a better showing for their State.

The present appropriation bill is for the whole country and we have Senator Simmons' word for it that the committee reporting it pruned it down and took out of it everything that looked like "pork". In fact, 99 per cent of all the projects to be taken care of were recommended by the army engineers as feasible, necessary and meritorious. What can the enemies of the bill say against the nation's expert engineers, except to oppose the bill for political purposes?

Failure of the bill, Senator Simmons says, means that work on one-half the river and harbors improvement in the country would have to be suspended. Senator Smith, of Michigan, says "there is not a single item in the bill for which the committee ought to apologize or make any excuse." Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, says the charge of "pork barrel" and "graft", therefore, is a reflection upon every member of the commerce committee of the Senate who prepared the waterways budget.

SHE IS SOME CHICKEN, SOME SQUAB!

Sure Mike! That is what the street crowd said about Mrs. Joseph K. Knowland, wife of Congressman Knowland, of Almeda, California. The words belong in the complimentary vocabulary of the street and so far as the beautiful and accomplished Mrs. Knowland is concerned, she has no kick coming on that score. She rather likes it and feels proud of the fact that she has made a good impression on the typically American populace, as it is in the aggregate.

Mr. Knowland is a candidate in California for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate, and since the senators are now nominated by the people (in some States) and elected by the people at the general election, the candidates have to present their claims to the people. That is what Mr. Knowland is doing and he has the loyal, faithful and effective assistance of Mrs. Knowland. She is a smart, bright, witty woman and is some campaigner, just as is Mr. Knowland. She has taken to the stump for the old man and has gone right out among the people to pull for Joe. She is working and drumming up votes for him to beat the band. By George, she is for Joe.

Mrs. Knowland is canvassing the State in an automobile, speaking at noon hours in factory yards, public squares and wherever she can reach a crowd. When her auto rolls up she stands up and presents the claims of her ambitious husband. She testifies herself about what a grand, noble and ideal sort of man he is at home and in all the walks and paths of life, and, above all, she endeavors to impress the men and women voters with the idea that, owing to his great ability and statesmanship, the voters would make the mistake of their lives to nominate any and every kind of an old Republican who thinks he is big enough to hold down a seat in the United States Senate.

In the meantime, Representative Knowland is on the job in the House of Congress at Washington while his wife is taking care of his fences. He is afraid to leave Washington for fear the Democrats will do something wrong, get the whole country in bad and finally wind up with a mortgage on the Capitol and the White House. The Honorable Joe can rest assured that Mrs. Knowland is taking care of his interests at home. The newspapers are printing her picture while she is speaking to immense crowds, and Republican, Democratic and Progressive papers agree that "Mrs. Knowland is a live wire."

While addressing a thousand men in San Francisco, she said: "I want you to like me, too, and to like my husband because he is always on the job." She also deliberately indulges in campaign slang, and in the course of her remarks she said to them: "I did not come here to give you any of that suffrage stuff, but I rode in the suffrage parade in Washington and some of the men must have liked my appearance, for they tried to drag me from the automobile and said, 'She is some chicken, some squab!' I want you men to like me too, and to like my husband and vote for him for the Senate."

We have no doubt Mrs. Knowland will make a big impression for the old man. He is a man of fine ability and is senatorial in size and calibre, and owing to the fact that his wife can stand for him and even ride around and speak for him, he must be a first rate sort of man, except that the people are bound to blame him for being a Republican.

Nevertheless, it is just typically American for a brilliant woman to assert herself and enter the large spheres that need entering. They also have a perfect right to be called "some chicken, some squab" when they know they are liked. When a woman knows that she is regarded in a kind of whole cheeseness light she appreciates the heartiness and sincerity of her fellow citizens and citizenesses.

OUR HUCKLEBERRY CROP

Few of us have any adequate conception of the magnitude and variety of North Carolina's resources. The statement by The Star's Mount Olive correspondent that already $42,000 worth of huckleberries have been shipped from that point this year almost staggers belief. Yet we have no reason to doubt the accuracy of his figures.

While the berries that brought this money were picked in Wayne, Sampson and Duplin counties, it is reasonable to suppose that these figures represent but comparatively a small portion of the total marketable crop of berries in these three counties this year, Carload shipments were made from Clinton and Warsaw, to say nothing of the large quantities forwarded from other points in that section of the State.

The interesting part of the story, aside from the magnitude of the crop, is that more than two-thirds of the money is profit, as the huckleberry crop does not cost a cent until the harvest is ripe and ready to be marketed. Picking, packing and transporation are the only items of expense in putting huckleberries on the market.

While State chairman Thos. D. Warren was in Washington Wednesday, the Washington correspondents tried to get him to talk. Of course, he made one or two more remarks than the Hon. John Lind has ever been given credit for making, but so far as the State-wide primary is concerned the State chairman did most of his talking in his own way of getting out of making an unequivocal answer.

Ever since most of us have been knee high to a duck, we have been told that the country isn't safe. But all the while the country has managed to hold its own. Twice a year we forget that it is not safe and actually believe that it is getting along so well that we observe "thanksgiving day" on that account, and also celebrate the Fourth of July because every one of us is stuck on the great American Republic.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The uninformed Columbia State tells us that the North Carolinians gulped their grape juice while Bryan was Fourth of Julying them. Tar Heels gulped no grape juice. They would have swallowed their Adam's apples first.—Houston Post.

The husband of a New Jersey woman candidate for office "declined a place on the ticket this year that he might help his wife." True domestic chivalry. Why should not all male candidates, where a woman is running in opposition, retire gracefully and leave the field to the fair foe?—New York World.

The authorities at a popular seaside resort, anxious about such things as are of good report, ordered the musicians to play hymns, in the hope of inducing the crowd of bathers to bathe, and leave off bunny-huggin for the Sabbath day, at least. Whereupon the said crowd immediately adapted dance steps to "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Ephraim is joined to his idols.—Greensboro News.

The Newbern Sun thinks the Democratic executive committee of the third congressional district is composed "of a thoroughly representative set of men who do not deserve the abuse heaped upon them from a certain quarter." The Observer had something of the same idea. We believe the conditions in the third district are not generally understood, and while not in the slightest degree undertaking to pose as a champion of eastern politicans, we are inclined to the belief that they are not quite the political brigands some of the papers would have us think.—Charlotte Observer.

In an interview with Miss Sybil Hyatt, of Kinston, in yesterday's paper it was stated that "Carolina and the Southern Cross," a publication devoted to keeping the history of the War Between the States straight, is making good headway. Mrs. Archbell, the editor, Miss Hyatt, the circulation manager, and their assistants are doing fine work for the magazine and there is no doubt at all that it will become a fixture in the North Carolina journalistic firmament. It is already a very great credit to the ladies who are publishing it and it is destined to be still more so. It is deserving of hearty encouragement, as it will undoubtedly bring out much valuable North Carolina history that might otherwise be lost.—Raleigh News and Observer.

No harm in guessing. Here goes If things keep going to the bad up in the Tenth Congressional District, watch a Republican walk in. They got things mussed up with that convention. Now they are trying to get matters straightened out by a primary. According to our information, the district is normally Republican and when a Democrat wins he must get Republican votes. This is one reason why they do not or did not want a primary. Things have become so balled up that the prospect for getting Republican votes is exceedingly slim. Even some Democrats acknowledge that if a certain G. O. P. man can be induced to run he will win out. Wait and see what happens.—Greensboro Record.

To Properly Treat Obstinate Wrinkles

Particularly where wrinkles are long and deep, the massage devotee is apt to rub too hard and too frequently. This loosens the skin, causes muscles to sag, aggravates the wrinkled condition—just the opposite result from that sought.

Better than massaging, or anything else, for the most obstinate wrinkles, as well as the finest lines, is a formula well known in England, which you may readily avail yourselves of, as you will have no difficulty procuring the inexpensive constituents from druggists in this country. It is this: One ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathe face, neck or hands in this.

The effect is really marvelous, not only as to wrinkles, but also in cases of baggy cheeks and chin. Marked improvement is noticed after the very first application. The lotion is cooling and soothing, tending to relieve fatigue and remove "that tired look."

Sleeveless Gowns Require Hairless Arms

Fashion says sleeveless, low-necked gowns for this season. This means hairless arms and neck, if you do not want to be humiliated. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. say that the safest, best and quickest way to be absolutely free from all trace of superfluous hair is to use the famous medical prescription known as Mrs. Osgood's Wonder for Superfluous Hair.

It is delightful to use and absolutely harmless. A single application makes hair on face, neck, arms, hands, or any other part of the body quickly disappear.

The cost is small, and J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will supply you, or in fact, any up-to-date druggist or department store, on a Money-Back guarantee basis.

FOR PALE THIN PEOPLE

Druggist J. Hicks Bunting Offers to Pay for Samose if it Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale, thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samose, the remarkable flesh forming food should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation, so that when taken for a short time, nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh will find his desires accomplished by Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that Druggist J. Hicks Bunting is willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. He makes this offer generally and wants all who are thin, weak and out of health to get a box of Samose from him on those terms.

CORN SHOW IN NOVEMDER

Committee from Chamber of Commerce Plan Exhibition on Large Scale—Main Features.

The date for the corn show and agricultural exhibit which will be given this year at Winoca Terrace near 17th and Market streets, has been set for the week beginning November 10th. The agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Dr. L. B. Sasser have been busy making plans for the fair which will be on a much larger scale than last year. The ladies of Sorosis have offered a number of handsome prizes for industrial and fine arts exhibits and will have some important announcements to make at an early date.

One of the most interesting features of the fair will be the corn show. The books for registering for this feature are still open at the Mission Pharmacy. There have been 125 names registered from the different counties in this section. By far the larger number have been from New Hanover, but a goodly number have also registered from other counties.

Two large tents have been secured for the fair. The smaller one of these which is 60x140 feet in size, will be used for an auditorium. It is large enough to furnish cover for 500 seats. This will be used for lectures by scientific experts and other agricultural workers. This is expected to be one of the most profitable parts of the fair.

The other tent is 70x160 feet in size and will be used for the corn show and agricultural exhibits. The industrial and fine arts exhibits will also be installed in this tent. With the much larger space this year it is hoped to have a much more varied exhibit than was given last year.

Letters from farmers all over Eastern North Carolina indicate that they are most enthusiastic over the prospects for the fair. The people of Wilmington are lending their cordial cooperation and will do everything possible to make it a success.

In addition to the exhibition of products grown on the farm, the agricultural implement companies will have exhibitions of the products manufactured by them and this will also prove to be a valuable educational agency.

Dr. L. B. Sasser, who had so much to do with making the corn show last year such a splendid success, has been actively at work on the proposition for several months and is giving it much time and attention. Secretary Howard B. Branch, of the Chamber of Commerce, is also working on the proposition and is giving as much of his time as possible to perfect the plans as outlined. Meetings of the agricultural committee are held at intervals to discuss ways and means of making the fair truly representative of the resources of this section.

FUNERAL OF MOTHER TERESA.

Ceremony at Belmont Impressive and Largely Attended.

The last funeral rites of Mother Mary Teresa, the mother superior of the Sisters of Mercy of North Carolina, who died last Monday morning at Asheville, were held at Belmont Wednesday morning. The remains were brought from Asheville Tuesday afternoon and laid in state in the Sacred Heart College chapel. The following is from the Belmont correspondence in yesterday's Charlotte Observer:

"The first funeral services were held in the college chapel by the Very Rev. F. Felix, O. S. B., D. D., Vicar General of North Carolina. The remains were then conveyed in a procession made up of flower girls, Sisters of Mercy and a host of sorrowing friends, to the Belmont Abbey Cathedral. Here a solemn high mass for the dead was chanted by Rev. F. Ignatius, O. S. B., assisted by a number of visiting clergy.

"After the divine service a stirring and impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. F. Felix in which he recalled the wonderful good done during the beautiful career of the Rev. Mother Superior. He spoke of her saintly sacrificing life and emphasized the fact that she had been a great power for good throughout the whole State and had made a host of friends.

"The funeral services following the mass were performed in the Cathedral by Rev. F. Felix, after which the body was carried in solemn procession to the cemetery. The clergy of Belmont Abbey chanted the Psalms of the dead during the procession. The burial services were held at the grave and after a few prayers for the departed soul the body was interred.

"This was the last of the earthly remains of one who was known, loved and revered far and wide as a noble saint, an energetic worker, a progressive educator, a spiritual mother of the Sisters of Mercy and an adopted mother of hundreds of orphans all of whom deeply deplore their loss.

"Many friends from Belmont, Charlotte and vicinity attended the funeral. It was the largest seen at Belmont for many years. The floral offerings that were sent from all parts of the State were magnificent and showed how much she was loved and respected by her numerous friends. Among the clergy from out of town were the following: V. Rev. Dean Dennen, Wilmington; Rev. P. F. Marion, Asheville; Rev. F. Vincent Taylor, Greensboro; Rev. Perome Finn, Charlotte, and Rev. G. A. Woods, Raleigh.

HEARING AT WASHINGTON, N. C.

Change of Harbor Lines for North Carolina Port to be Considered.

Maj. H. W. Stickle, United States district engineer, yesterday issued the following order relative to a public hearing which will be held at Washington, N. C., on August 12 to consider the advisability of modifying the harbor lines for that port:

"Pursuant to request of Hon. John H. Small, of Washington, N. C., for a modification of the harbor line at Washington, N. C., and for an extension of the harbor lines as far as the mouth of Runyon's creek, the Chief of Engineers has authorized a public hearing, with a view to considering the advisability, or otherwise, of the change desired, and of such other changes in any part of the harbor lines at Washington, N. C., as may be desired by interested parties.

"The establishment of harbor lines authorizes riparian owners to extend structures to the limits defined by such lines, without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of War, as is required in other cases.

"In order that all parties interested in the proposed modification or desiring any modifications at other points may be given full opportunity to express their views, a public hearing will be held in the Federal building, Washington, N. C., August 12, 1914, 11:30 A. M. All interested parties are cordially invited to attend this hearing. It is preferred that, as far as practicable, arguments and statements be submitted in writing."

SHOW DIVERSITY OF EXPORTS

British Steamer Clears With Cargo of Veneering Woods, and Schooner With Puncheons.

As an example of the diversity of Wilmington's imports and exports, there are two clearances of vessels today with rather unusual cargoes—the British steamer Kylestrome, 2,105 tons, Capt. Muir, for Glasgow, Scotland, with cargo of gum lumber and veneering woods, and the schooner Alice L. Pendleton, Capt. Marshall, which clears for a return to the Barbadoes with empty molasses puncheons from the C. C. Covington Company.

The Kylestrome is from the docks of the Acme Tea Chest Co., just across the river from foot of Chesnut street, and she goes via Mobile, Ala., to complete cargo before her voyage across. The cargo received here, the value of which runs way up into the thousands, consists of 105,000 feet of the lumber and two and a half million feet of the veneering woods, the shipping of which, after handling by the Wilmington plant of the company, has grown to be quite an important industry here.

The schooner Pendleton, which brought cargo of molasses here for the C. C. Covington Company, returns to the islands for another cargo and on her return carries 603 empty puncheons, valued at $1,206. The vessel is by C. D. Maffitt & Co. She goes first to St. Johns, Antigua, via Bridgetown, Barbados.

GODWIN IS FOR CLARK

Says He Will Urge His Appointment to Supreme Court Bench

In reply to a letter from Mr. Frank Herbst, of this city, urging the appointment of Chief Justice Walter Clark, of Raleigh, to the United States Supreme Court bench to succeed Justice Lurton, deceased, Congressman H. L. Godwin writes that he will do everything possible to have Judge Clark named for the place. Mr. Herbst was local manager for Judge Clark during his recent campaign for the United States Senate and is making a determined effort towards securing his appointment to the Supreme Court bench.

Following is the letter from Congressman Godwin to Mr. Herbst:

"Washington, D. C., July 20,1914.

"Mr. Frank Herbst, Wilmington, N. C.,

"My Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of your esteemed favor of the 17th inst. asking me to do what I could to assist inhaving Judge Walter Clark elevated to the Supreme bench of the United States. I have also noted what you have said with reference to his pre-eminent qualifications and fitness for this position. In reply I beg to assure you that I most heartily agree with you that Judge Clark is well qualified for the position his friends are seeking for him and I shall do everything I can to assist in having him appointed. Of course you know the matter is with the President and there are many in the United States who are pressing their friends but Judge Clark has my unqualified endorsement and support.

"Yours very truly,
"H. L. GODWIN."

REPLIES TO MR. EMPIE.

Dr. Nesbitt Says Health Department Has Done Its Duty.

Replying to certain statements made before City Council by Brooke Empie, Esq., in which he stated that the request of the Health Department that all dogs in the city be muzzled was silly and that probably no physician in Wilmington had seen a case of hydrophobia, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt yesterday stated that he considered such arguments as advanced by Mr. Empie so weak that they place upon the authors a responsibility that the Health Department does not care to sustain.

He declared that the department has exercised its function by warning the civil authorities, who are empowered by law to take the necessary measures to prevent the spread of rabies. If these measures are not taken, he said, then the responsibility for the welfare of the citizens of the city must rest upon those who consider their dogs dearer than the public welfare.

"The situation in Wilmington with reference to rabies is one of danger to the citizens," he stated. He reiterated his statement to Council that there have been human beings in the city who have been bitten by rabid dogs. In other places human beings bitten by rabid animals, he said, have developed rabies and have died. He did not consider the argument of Mr. Empie that no case of hydrophobia had been seen by a physician worthy of serious refutation.

TO SPEAK IN WHITEVILLE.

Mr. J. Allan Taylor Accepts Invitation to Address Citizens.

Mr. J. Allan Taylor, one of the leading business men of this city, will address the citizens of Whiteville on next Tuesday night on the general subject of town building. The citizens of that progressive town have recently undertaken to develop more community pride and to engender greater enthusiasm.

Knowing that Mr. Taylor is a man of wide business experience they extended to him an urgent invitation to address them.

Mr. Taylor has served as president of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce and has at all times taken a prominent part in every proposition for building up a greater and better Wilmington. He is a splendid type of the progressive business man of today and will be able to give the citizens of Whiteville some valuable suggestions.

Lay Corner Stone Wednesday.

The corner stone of the new Knights of Pythias building now being built on Princess street will be laid Wednesday if Grand Chancellor James G. Baird, of Charlotte, can arrange to be present at that time. The three Pythian lodges of the city have named committees on arrangements. The ceremony will be most elaborate and impressive and will be witnessed by a large number of people.

Death of Young Son

Many friends will sympathize tenderly with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shew in the death of their 21-month-old son, James E. Shew, whcih occured at their home, No. 716 Queen street, yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. The funeral will be conducted from the residence this morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

ANNIVERSARY OF BATTLE

Annual Celebration at Moore's Creek on Thursday, August 6th—Many Interesting Features

Mr. George J. Moore, of Atkinson, president of the Moore's Creek Battle Ground Association, was in the city yesterday making arrangements for the annual celebration at the battle ground which takes place this year on Thursday, August 6th. The Atlantic Coast Line has authorized low rates from Sanford, Wilmington, Goldsboro and all intermediate points to Currie on account of the occasion. The battle ground is within easy reach of Currie and it is expected that several thousand will come by rail besides the large number who will come through the country.

The celebration will be called to order by the president, Mr. Geo. J. Moore, who after prayer by some visiting minister will formally welcome the visitors. The response to the address of welcome will be made by Rivers D. Johnson, Esq., of Warsaw. This will be followed by the address by the orator of the day. The speaker for the occasion has not been secured as yet but will be some prominent public man of the State.

Upon the conclusion of the exercises there will be a dinner served on the grounds. All those attending are requested to bring well filled baskets. The dinners served on previous occasions have left pleasant memories behind and the dinner this year will be fully up to the standard.

There will be an excellent cornet band present all day and music of the stirring kind that most people appreciate is assured. Good order will be preserved and no drinking on the grounds will be allowed. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend and enjoy the day.

There will be a reunion of all the Confederate veteran camps in this section in the afternoon and a cordial invitation is extended to each and every Veteran to attend.

Mr. E. E. Murphy is secretary of the battle ground association and is assisting Mr. Moore in arranging the details of the celebration.

CONVICT WILL BE TRIED BY RECORDER TODAY

Witness in Whiskey Selling Cases Charged With Escape from Roads

Dude Hill, a negro, who has been on the county roads for some time, will be tried by the Recorder today on a charge of escaping from the convict camp at East Wilmington. Hill appeared in court several days ago as a witness in a case against Sandy Allen, colored, charged with selling whiskey. Hill freely admitted that for the last four months he had been coming to Wilmington nearly every night.

Lamb Brown, Sandy Allen and Kirk Highsmith, all colored, in whose cases Hill figured as a witness, submitted and prayer for judgment was continued by Deputy Recorder Harriss for 12 months upon their giving a bond of $100 for their good behavior. John Green, colored, who was tried several days ago on a charge of retailing, was sentenced to serve three months on the county roads.

The case against Hill promises to be interesting because County Road Superintendent Burnett states that he is the only convict at the camp that is allowed to come to the city unless accompanied by a guard. Mr. Burnett stated that Hill was allowed this privilege by the Board of County Commissioners because of his services in informing the road superintendent of a threatened wholesale escape of convicts some time ago.

Chief of Police Williams in conversation with Mr. Burnett yesterday stated that the police force will not arrest any convicts found in the city unless given orders to do so by Comciiman Jones and Mayor Moore because of a fear that convicts will be arrested, who have permission to come to the city. He said that he was recently informed by Solicitor Peschau that it would be his duty to have all convicts found in the city arrested unless they were accompanied by a guard.

Solicitor Peschau stated yesterday afternoon that he had nothing to say about the matter but it is likely that a full investigation of the whole matter will be made today. Hill has been confined in the county jail since his appearance as a witness in Recorder's court several days ago and his naive confession that he was a convict on the county roads.

Cases against Peter Lacewell, P. C. McLain, J. E. Johnson, J. B. Brinson, John Jones and Elizah Jones, charged with failure to secure badges for their dogs, were nol prossed yesterday, it appearing that the defendants had complied with the law

CONSIDER PLANS FOR MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

Membership Committee of Chamber of Commerce Met Yesterday.

At a meeting of the committee on membership of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. E. A. Metts is chairman, held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber, plans for increasing the membership of this organization were discussed and it was decided at an early date to inauguarte a campaign to this end. The exact date for beginning the campaign was left open.

The secretary is preparing publicity material and other matter to interest the citizens of the city more keenly in the work of Wilmington's oldest commercial body.

On or about October 1st the Chamber of Commerce will move into its new quarters on the seventh floor of the new Murchison bank building. The rooms are in the rear of the building overlooking the river and afford a splendid view of the many advantages of this port. The quarters will be large enough to accommodate all the needs of the Chamber for a number of years and have the further advantage of being capable of being expanded as the organization grows.

All the fetures such as market reports, files of all the trade and financial papers, maps and other features will be continued in the new quarters and in addition a number of improvements made. One of those contemplated is to have an exhibit of all the products manufactured in and near Wilmington. This will give to a visitor at a glance an insight into the varied resources of Wilmington and vicinity.

While the Chamber of Commerce already has a large membership in which every class of business is represented, it is believed that with the proper efforts it can be greatly increased and its usefulness to the city greatly enlarged.

BRIGADE IN CAMP WILSON

Mid-Week Dance-Athletic Events and Winners—Epworth League Excursion—Capt Harper

(Special Star Correspondence)

Camp Wilson, Carolina Beach, N. C., July 23—General Orders No. 7 today names Kelly Smith, officer of the day; H. G. Carney, Ed Register, George Boremann and Robert Lord, guard detail, with the following waiters, Dumas Rochelle, Earl Mintz, C. Williams and L. Cumber.

The regular mid-week dance was held at the beach last night. This has nothing to do with the encampment at first thought; on further thought, it has, and thusly: The fellows had an "unwritten agreement," as the Colonel expressed it, to come to camp by 10 o'clock every night. Last night not a head could be counted in camp at 10 o'clock, nor for some time thereafter.

This morning after breakfast Col. Taylor informed us that an excursion would be down today partly for our benefit, with three boats bringing various wives, mothers, sisters, sweethearts and so on; that he missed our company in camp last night and he didn't want any visitors to miss us there today; that he was obliged to us for accepting his timely suggestion that we remain in quarters all day and be at home to any visitors! And Kelly Jewell, Earl King, Armistead Dowdy and Ralph Sholar had anticipated such a large day up and down the beach in general with the excursionists.

During an informal gathering at headquarters, the fellows cussing and discussing things in particular and at large, the inimitable Kelly Jewell had the hardihood to explode with his usual mirth-provoking manner of speech and deportment, "oh yes, Colonel, there'll be another late boat tonight and we'll all spend the day in camp again tomorrow; won't we, naw sir, we don't mind staying in camp at all; the pleasure's ours, you're quite welcome, Colonel".

Upon waking this morning our commander wanted to know by what means we had been transported so suddenly to fog-famed London. Tents, cots, bed-clothes, hair all were wet, yet no rain had fallen; tents were pitched within a few feet of each other, yet one was hardly visible from another; feminine voices were plainly heard on the beach a few feet away as they beguiled us to come on for our morning dip, yet not a vestige of the ladies could be seen; the sun was in its proper place above the horizon, yet the Colonel called for authority as to whether it was the sun, moon, or simply a large star, so pale did it appear. Some fog, that. It was one of the wonders of our encampment to witness such a heavy atmosphere, to see the fog travel bodily through tents, drenching contents as it passed, to watch it gradually rise and grow thinner until it finally disappeared and left the brilliant sun to have its rightful sway over most things earthly

It is a great pleasure to have with us for a few hours to-day the many visitors from Wilmington who came down with the excursion run by the Epworth League of Fifth Street Methodist Church. Among the visitors are Rev. G. T. Adams, Dr. J. M Wells, Mr. W. S. Clayton, Rev. Mr. Baker and family.

Among the more interesting events of the day were the races planned by those in charge of the excursion from the city and held on the beach to the front of camp. The different races and winners were as follows:

60 Yard Dash for Boys:—Winner, Schuster Griffith (E. Smith fell down)

100 Yard Dash for Men:—Winner, Robert Snakenburg (11 seconds).

Three legged Race for Boys:—Winners, Charles Bell and S. Griffith.

Running Broad Jump for Boys:—Winner, Charles Bell.

Running Broad Jump for men:—winner, Robert Snakenburg.

Long Distance Ball Throwing:—Winner, Louis T. Davis.

Swimming Contest, Open to All:—Winner, (called off)

Officials:—Manager of events: E. A. Palmgren. Starter J. Utley King, Judges, W. R. Dosher and B. F. Brittain Jr., Scorer, B. F. King Jr.

Captain and Mrs. John W. Harper have graciously extended an invitation to the entire organization and lady friends to enjoy a ride o nthe steamer Wilmington tomorrow morning touching Southport and Ft. Caswell. Needless to say, their kindness was accepted and the ride is anticipated "most much" The good captain and hic wife have always been staunch friends to enjoy a ride on the steamer failed to prove it in numerous substantial ways during the 18 years of our existence.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she hasn't heard of this splendid embrocation is probably not reading the papers to much extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fine network of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. And particularly to young mothers is this remedial application of inestimable value since in thus keeping the muscles firm but pliant it enables them to go through the ordeal without laceration of the epidermis often the case when this gentle attention is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" is highly recommended by a host of women. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 408 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

LOVELY TOURING TRIP TO THE MOUNTAINS

The following from Tuesday's Anderson, S. C., daily Intelligencer will be of interest to friends in the city:

"A delightful touring party has just been completed which was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brissey in their Franklin car complimentary to Miss Anna Banks of Wilmington, N. C., Members of the party consisted of Mr and Mrs. W. L. Brissey, Mr. and Mrs. H. O Wallace and Miss Banks.

"They made no effort at a record breaking trip, but made same at a medium rate in order to take in fully the magnificent mountain scenery. The party left Anderson Saturday at 1 o'clock and with the exeptin of a puncture at Pelzer, which delayed them an hour, made the trip without a delay.

"All members of the party reported it as being one of the grandest trips ever made. The weather was i deal, the road splendid, there only being about three miles of bad roads in the whole trip which covered something like 300 miles or more. The fine farming sections and their conditions were especially notable and it is needless to say the scenery was that of a most picturesque nature."

MARRIAGE OF MR. JACKSON TO MISS BERTHA DIEMMER

Of interest to many friends in Wilmington and elsewhere will be the following fro mWednesday's Augusta, Ga., Chronicle:

"The marriage of Mr. James William Jackson of Wilmington, N. C., and Miss Bertha Diemmer was a beautiful event of yesterday morning and one of widespread interest to a large circle of friends throughout Georgia and Carolina. The ceremony was performed at the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church at the hour of 10:30 in the morning. The church was decorated with exquisite taste for the occasion A soft carpet of white covered the entire floor and was a background for the quantity of green palms, ferns and smilax. Each window was outlined in graceful garlands of smilax and the altar was ablaze with glowing candles gleaming through stately palms, while tall pedestals of white were surmounted by white baskets filled with snowy blossoms mingled with feathery fern and tied with butterfly bows of white tulle. Miss Bredenburg presided at the ogran and played beautiful selections as the many friends filled the church.

"At the appointed hour when the strains of the wedding march were sounded, the brdal party entered the church and walked to the altar in the following order. First came the ushers, Mr. Edward Diemmer and Mr. Max Diemmer, Jr., followed by Mr. sAhby Matthews and Mr. Frank Blackstone, the ushers wearing palm beach suits and lillies of the valley in their boutonniers. The maid of honor came in alone, Miss Lucille Diemmer, who was charming in a gown of soft white voile trimmed with lace and touches of pink stain and wearing a smart hat of white trimmed in pink. She carried an armful of pink roses. The bride then came in with her father, Mr. Max Diemmer. She looked lovely in an extremely becoming [illegible] amethyst moire, the short coat opening over the white chiffon blouse and with this was worn a hat of the amethyst shades. Her flowers were Bride roses showered with valley lillies.

"The bride was met at the altar by the grome and his best man, Mr. Williams, of Wilmington, and the pastor, Rev. J. B. Derrick, who performed the ceremony in an impressive manner.

"After the ceremony the bride and groom left for an extended trip though the mountains of North Carolina and on their return they will make their home in Wilmington.

"Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Diemmer, of this city, and her bright intellect, charming disposition and personal attractions have won for her countless friends who deeply regret her leaving and who will follow her to her new home with countless good wishes. Mr. Jackson is one of Wilmington's prominent and progressive young men and has a wide circle of friends there and throughout the state.

"Many handsome wedding gifts were received by this popular young couple.

"Among the handsome gowns worn, Mrs. Diemmer, the mother of the bride wore a gown of gray crepe de chine. Miss Yopp, of Wilmington, wore a charming gown of shadow lase over silk and Miss Ida Maie Jackson, another attractive Wilmington girl, was pretty in a gown of white crepe meteor. Mr. George Jackson, the father of the groom, was among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding."

Yesterday's News and Observer: Miss Mary Horton, cashier of the News and Observer, left yesterday to spend her vacation at Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach—Miss Mary C. Pitts passed through the city yesterday from Wrightsville Beach, where she has been spending some time en route to Richmond.

Mr. West and Miss Chandler last evening gave another exhibition of the pretty Brazillian Maxixe which was received most enthusiastically by the large audience. The were warmly applauded and in response repeated the dance. After the brilliant display of fireworks they danced the one step and then gave an exhibition of the hesitation, both of which were rendered in their usual artistic style.

"A Proposal from Mary" heads tonight's bill at the South's famous seaside resort, Lumina. This picture is another chapter of that thrilling series of "What Happened to Mary" pictures and in this one she has a hairbreath escape in an aeroplane. "the Upward Way" and "A Vagabond Cupid," drama by the Edison Company and the Essanay Company respectively are both deep laid plots and are chuck full of first class acting and interesting features.

The bright, particular feature at Lumina this evening will be "Charlotte Night", which has been arranged in honor of the many visitors each summer from the Queen City. From 9:15 to 9:45 P. M., only Charlotte couples will be admitted to the floor and prizes will be given to the best dancers among the Charlotte people, though there will be nothing like a contest. In addition to the prizes souvenirs of a unique character will be distributed to the Charlotte dancers.

With conditions well nigh ideal from a weather standpoint for such an exhibition, a dazzling display of fireworks was given at Lumina last night under the supervision of Mr. Hudson, who has on previous occasions given such splendid pyrotechnic exhibitions at the beach. There were many spectators and they expressed themselves as highly pleased. This was the first display of fireworks at the beach this season. In addition to the large number present from the city many from the different hotels and cottages on the beach also attended.

The exhibition dance at Lumina tomorrow night will be a Pierrette and Pierrot dance. In this exhibition the dancers will appear in the well known Pierrette and Pierrot costumes. In presenting this dance colored light effects will be used. Other special costume dances will be introduced at Lumina by Miss Chandler and Mr. West next week. One of these being the minuet, which will, of course, be given in Colonial costume. Another special dance scheduled for next week is the Hungarian Hoopwaltz, in which the dancers are encircled by a hoop as they perform the dance.

Included in the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ryan, Edgefield, S. C.; Geo. Mayo Crump, Richmond, Va.; A. W. Fleming and Paul Brantley, Wilson; G. B. Edgerton, Lewisburg; Graham Woodard and Jas. A. Hackney, Wilson; W. B. Ricks, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. M. E. Barkley, Raleigh; W. T. McCoy, Charlotte; Mrs. Julian Timberlake and Miss Agnes Cotton Timberlake, Raleigh; Miss Dorothy Flannagan and Miss Mattie C. Burney, Columbia, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross MacNeal, Burgaw; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cotten, Bruce; Col. Fred J. Coxe, Wadesboro; E. A. Thomason, Charlotte.

THE GYMNASIUM OF A Y. M. C. A.

The gymnasium of a Young Women's Christian Association is always its life and center. The physical director is the one above all others who is going to get close to the girls. The general secretary is glad to see the girl reached whether she is able to do it or not. She looks to the physical director who is fitted by education and temperament to supply what she lacks. She takes pleasure in the pleasure of the girls' enthusiasm over the director. She listens without a particle of jealousy to the girl who raves over the director's "attractiveness," "her dandy hair," or "her radiant eyes," and prays that God will use all the director's attractiveness to His own honor and glory.

The aim of the physical director is to promote health and increase the efficiency of every girl connected with the department. The class work, gymnastics, games and aesthetic and folk dancing are but tools, albeit they must be good tools. Ideally, the physical director should keep in such close touch with her members that each girl would be carefully examined, her defects noted, advice and if necessary an individual prescription of exercises given and each case thoroughly followed up. Practically, with the majority of members this is impossible. Although this may not be done individually, it is possible to do it through class work, supplemented by hygiene talks, and this preventive and corrective work may be made very successful.

The physical training department in the Young Women's Christian Association recognizes a condition that is found in few other institutions—the fact that attendance is wholly voluntary. The conclusion is obvious. The work must be popular; the girls must have a good time so that they will come again. The work should be planned under certain definite heads and should include recreative, hygienic, corrective, and educational work. The recreative work explains itself. The hygienic work comprises those exercises which aid the functioning of organs, and includes running, jumping, climbing and some kinds of dancing. The term "corrective" is applied to those exercises which are particularly designed to counteract the poor bodily postures so often assumed during ordinary activities; and by "educational" is meant the training of bodily skill in reference to external objects, such as all kinds of apparatus, balls, etc. There is no sharp line of demarcation between these kinds of work—between hygienic and corrective work, for instance; indeed, in many cases all four varieties are combined in one exercise, but by keeping all four aims in mind, the director is prevented from giving hygienic work entirely without thought of posture, or giving formal corrective work at the expense of exercise and enjoyment.

The physical director should know how to correct when necessary, but more and more she should direct her energies toward prevention. Corrective gymnastics, in the minds of many people, immediately associates itself with the correction of spinal curvature, but they include either the prevention or correction of poor bodily posture of any kind, foot defects, circulatory defects, paralysis, indigestion, certain nervous disorders, and the adjustment of bodily weight.

Much preventive work may be done in general classes, and through general hygiene talks. The importance of good posture must be emphasized; the physical director may show what constitutes good posture—how to walk and stand well, how to sit correctly while working at a desk, sewing, etc. The mechanics of the foot may be explained, the various points of a good shoe recounted and firms selling proper shoes recommended. A talk may be given on the digestive system with the dangers of lack of proper elimination strongly emphasized. Such a talk may also include diet, and the influence of diet upon the losing or gaining of weight. Good posture should be insisted upon in all our work, especially in our classes for school girls; the importance of fresh air and sunlight must be made clear and the girls impressed with the need for regular exercise, and encouraged toward outdoor sports.

The physical director has no easy task set before her. But if she be full of life and spirit, if she has the interest of the girl at heart, if she has the spirit of the association, always looking to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of her Faith, she will be a success and all the girls will love her.

Miss Mars, the physical director of the Brooklyn association, has written a most interesting article on the work of the physical director in the last Association Monthly. I have drawn largely from it in writing this article.

ELLA A. CLARK.

A Real Curiosity.

In these days of high-power motor locomotion, a real curiosity made its appearance on the streets yesterday afternoon in the shape of one of the old-fashioned bicycles—one with a high wheel in front and a very small one in the rear. And, strange to say, this old curiosity finds a place in the modern establishment of the Wilmington postoffice, the wheel being the property of Special Delivery Carrier Tom Rowan. He had it out yesterday merely to show folks what bicycling used to be and in various exhibitions, he proved himself an adept on the old-time machine.

BULLISH TONE IN COTTON

While Market Showed Some Irregularity at Start, Early Issues Speedily Regained.

New York, July 23.—There was a distinctly bullish atmosphere about the cotton market today and while it showed some irregularity at the start, with first prices 4 to 5 points lower because of showers in Texas and easier cables, subsequent weather developments were so unfavorable that the early loss was speedily regained and the balance of the day the market exhibited pronounced signs of strength, reaching the top during the last hour. The close was steady 8 to 11 points net advance. Bears were greatly disappointed at the volume and extent of the Southwest rains. They were scattered about Texas, but in such small quantities to scarcely lay the dust. The forecast was for fair conditions tonight and tomorrow except for showers on the Texas coast. Supplementing this was a series of high temperatures in the Southwest. Hot winds at 13 stations in Texas had a maximum temperature of 100 to 108 degrees. Pessimistic reports were received today from both Georgia and Alabama, where rain is said to be needed at a number of points.

Spot houses were credited with selling cotton early in the day against new crop purchases in the South, but their brokers appeared to be buying cotton in the last hour.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 13.15; middling gulf 13.50; sales 350. Futures closed steady.

NEW HAVEN SUIT THE FEATURE

Yesterday's Stock Market Reflects Condition by Liquidation—Foreign Markets Uneasy.

New York, July 23.—Filing of the suit to dissolve the New Haven Railroad was the feature of today's news.

Paris, Berlin and Vienna was reported as showing signs of demoralization, a condition which found partial reflection in liquidation in our market.

The New Haven suit had the effect of causing the stock to move in feverish fashion. Many of the better known stocks fell from 1 to over 2 points with weakness in Lehigh Valley and Reading. Baltimore & Ohio advanced a fraction but later declined to its low point. Rio Grande preferred, Rock Island preferred, and a few more inconspicuous stocks and bonds sold at prices seldom if ever before quoted.

The improvement was broader than recently, embracing ore issues of potential value. Fractional rallies in the final hour were effaced at the close, which was accompanied by much activity.

Bonds continued to show a declining tendency in low priced issues. Total sales, par value, were $2,829,000. United States coupon 4s advanced 1 1-2 per cent on call.

Columbia, S. C., July 23.—Governor Blease ordered closed the Columbia, Metropolitan and Ridgewood clubs of this city, during his speech at the campaign meeting here today for candidate for the United States Senate. The chief executive explained his action by saying some of those persons in the audience interrupting him were members of those organizations. When the Governor began his speech combined cheers and howls of derision extending over a period of 15 minutes prevented him making himself heard.

TOBACCO MARKET AT LUMBERTON OPENS

Twenty-Five Thousand Pounds Sold Yesterday at 4 to 16 Cents

(By Long Distance Telephone)

Lumberton, N. C., July 23—The tobacco season opened here today, 25,000 pounds being sold at prices ranging from 4 to 16 cents per pound. The sale was the largest recorded this season by any one warehouse in this section by more than 10,000 pounds. Much of the leaf sold here today was a very inferior grade and, while a few did not seem satisfied with what they received, many expressed themselves as being well pleased.

WILSON DISCUSSES RIVERS AND HARBORS QUESTION.

With Representatives Small and Moore of Association.

Washington, July 23.—President Wilson, discussing the rivers and harbors question today with Representatives mall and Moore, who spoke for the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, expressed a desire that some comprehensive plan for co-ordinating various projects might be developed in Congress. He did not commit himself to any definite plan, but said he was very hopeful something along this line might be done during his administration.

Body Was Found on Beach at Galveston Some Days Ago.

Galveston, Tex., July 23.—Dr. Marie C. Schaefer, of San Antonio, today after examining the body of the woman found dead on the beach here Tuesday, positivly identified it as that of a former resident of San Antonio. Dr. Schaefer declined to make the name of the woman public. He declared that it was a case of suicide as a letter had been received by San Antonio relatives of the dad woman in which sh stated she intended taking her life because of ill health.

According to sheriff Thomas the woman was connected with one of the best known families in Texas.

L. R. Varser, Esq., of Lumberton, was a guest at the Orton Hotel last night.

preponderant feeling is that of profound relief. I had come to feel that I was in some way the occasion of getting you into difficulties. I am sure that my withdrawal is wise."

President Wilson's reply:

"My Dear Friend:

"Your letter of the 20th of July brings to me, I think, more kinds of regret than any other letter I ever received; regret, first of all, that the country should lose the invaluable services of such a ma nas I, and all fair-minded men who know you at all, know you to be; I regret that I should have brought upon you so unpleasant an experience in which you were treated with gross and manifest injustice; regret that such circumstances should seem even for the moment to be associated with appointment to high office under the great government of the United States, representing a generous, fair and honorable people, regret that a great banking system should be so obstructed.

"I have no moment of flagging enthusiasm in standing by men whom I honor and believe in. You may leave my feelings, (my feeling for myself) out of the reckoning.

"This aspect of this matter which seems to be of gravest concern and consequence is that the choice of members of the Federal Reserve Board of the new banking system should have been made an occasion of partisan alignment and action. The adverse report on your nomination to which you justly refer as unfair and untrue is, of course, not to be charged to the feeling or action of the Senate of the United States or to anything for which that great body as a whole can be held responsible. The report is signed only by the minority members of the committee and by two members of the majority who have usually after with them.

Regrets Embarrassing Incident.

"I wish most heartily that the inauguration of the new national banking system, a system concerved and enacted with no element of partisanship in its objects or provisions, might have been free from this unfortunate and ominous incident.

"I believe that the judgment and desire of the whole country is out for a new temper in affairs. The time has come when discriminations against particular classes of men should be absolutely laid aside and discarded as unworthy of the councils of a great people. The effort for genuine social justice, for peace, the peace which is founded on common understandings and for prosperity, the prosperity of co-operation and mutual trust and confidence, should be a united effort without partisan prejudice or class antagonism.

"Your action in requesting that your name be withdrawn displays your usual sensitive ergard for considerations other than your own personal interest and sincerely as I regret it, I cannot but honor you for the action you have taken. I have no right to asw, much less to urge that you continue to allow yourself to be made the football of the sort of contest which has sprung up over this nomination. It is a matter of genuine sorrow to me that a man like you should be excluded from the public service upon great occasion. But neither of us is responsible for the extraordinary circumstance. We must both accept them. I can only hope that better, cooler, wiser counsels may presently prevail.

"Morevore, a great programme of corrective and constructive legislation is upon the eve of completion and I am sure that you would not wish as I do not wish, anything of a personal character to stand, even temporarily in its way to delay or in any respect divert it. It is already clear that the country comprehends and will redress the injustice which has been done you.

"With warmest regard, Cordially and faithfully yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

DOES WILSON CONSIDER JUDGE CLARK TOO OLD?

Mr. McGlamery, accompanied by his wife, two children and Mrs. W. N. Hinton, has been on an automobile trip to Atlantic City, Niagara Falls and into Canada. They have traveled over 5,000 miles since they left Greensboro. Mr. McGlamery is using a Ford car and has had but one puncture since he left home and used the same set of tires.

Federal Court at Laurinburg.

The House judiciary committee reported favorably the bill introduced by Representative Page authorizing the holding of Federal Court in Laurinburg.

Postmaster W. D. Laroque, of Kinston, is here. He has been at Atlantic City. He is accompanied by J. N. Hines, of Greenville, Miss Clare Hines, of Kinston, and Miss Anna Price, of Warsaw. P. R. A.

And Judge Clark is 68.

Washington, July 23.—President Wilson wants to find a man under 60 years to fill the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench caused by the death of Associate Justice Lurton, although a man slightly older would not be rejected.

When Senators Simmons and Overman today presented the name of Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, who is 68 years old, the President outlined his ideas. So far as is known, the President has made no definite selection from the many names presented. Secretary Lane and Attorney General McReynolds still are said to be foremost.

And Wilson, Too.

The House judiciary committee today favorably reported the bill providing that the Federal district court in North Carolina shall hold sessions at Laurinburg and Wilson.

SCENES OF A DRAMATIC NATURE FEATURE TRIAL

Fabre report. Calmette at first refused to listen to him, but M. Briand the former minister of justice, then joined him in his insistence. "If I do not publish the Fabre report,' said M. Calmette to me" Bathou continued, 'I have nothing more, my campaign is over."

M. Caillaux then confronted him and the two expremiers stood at the bar. Bartou reaffirmed that he had never said Mme Gueydan had showed him the letters. Caillaux was equally positive that he had.

Finally M. Labori ended the incident by saying: "There can be no question of the good faith of both you gentlemen, but your minds could not have been working the same way that day."

Mr. E. M. Barnes, of Fair Bluff, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.
